Program

Degree Program – The mission of the N J Brockman School of Theology is to educate and develop able and effective Christian leaders at all levels for service in Christian ministries: pastors, evangelists, Christian educators/directors, youth leaders and religious counselors.

Objectives

1. To help Church leaders better understand the basic principles and tenets of the Christian faith.
2. To help Church leaders develop and cultivate skills in fulfilling their respective ministries.
3. To help Church leaders develop self-confidence in their Christian witness.
4. To help Church leaders better understand the nature, purpose and ministries of the church.
5. To help Church leaders develop contemporary methods of ministry.

Registration

Any student who has acquired a high school diploma, GED or equivalent may register for the Degree Program

Fees

The registration fee, (textbook fees, and a percentage of the tuition cost per course taken, must accompany the application for each student at the beginning of the semester. The balance must be paid before the mid-term examination of the semester.

Class Requirements/Attendance Policy

Full attendance is required of all students. A student is never excused from the work of the class. Unexcused absences will impact your grades. It is understood that absences allowed must provide for illness and other emergency reasons. During inclement weather follow Greenville County School policy.

All classes are to meet three hours per week for thirteen weeks. Final examination is given the thirteenth week.

Grading

The grades for the Diploma Program are indicated by the symbols: “A”, “B”, “C,” “D”, “F”, “I”, “W”, and “WV”.

A = 90 - 100

B = 80 - 89

C = 70 - 79

D = 60 - 69

F = Below 60

I = incomplete. The student did not complete some phase of his/her work, such as turning in written papers, taking examination etc.

W = Withdrew

WV = Course waived

Incomplete work must be made up by the end of the semester following the term in which the course was taken. Failure to do so will result in the grade of “F”. Any student with a failing grade of “F” must repeat the course to fulfill requirements.

Records And Transcripts

The school office will maintain records of each student enrolled in the respective courses. The record will include: semester date, course name, grade, and instructor. Grades are mailed at the end of each semester. There is a fee for copies of transcripts.
